State of There has been neither significant changes to the state of affairs of the Fund nor any Affairs circumstances that materially affect any interests of the unitholders during the period under review. Rebates During the period, the management company did not receive soft commissions by and Soft virtue of transactions conducted for the Fund. Commission Market The Malaysia bond market posted a strong performance during the review period. Review supported by a dovish shift in interest rate expectations, resilient domestic liquidity, and strong foreign demand. Yields on Malaysia Government Securities (MGS) declined across tenors in May, while June saw some consolidation amid profit-taking and volatile global bond conditions. Despite these fluctuations, overall sentiment in the local bond market remained resilient. In July, the market generally traded firmer, buoyed by easing monetary policy. The bullish momentum from April extended into May, with broad-based yield declines. Positive sentiment was reinforced by dovish signals from Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM), including a 100 basis point (bps) reduction in the Statutory Reserve Requirement (SRR) implemented in May 2025 and increased foreign participation in Malaysia bond market. Net foreign inflows surged to RM13.5 billion in May (April 2025: RM10.2 billion), marking the highest monthly inflow since May 2014 and reflecting strong conviction in the ringgit-denominated bond market. In June, the local bond market demonstrated resilience against a backdrop of United States Treasury (UST) volatility and continued weakness in the United States Dollar (USD). While MGS experienced some profit-taking in medium-term tenors, sentiment recovered in the final week of the month, resulting in only marginal movements in benchmark yields. In July, the market continued to trade firmer, with the MGS yield curve forming a bullflattened shape. The positive momentum in the domestic fixed income market reflected the easing monetary policy, as BNM delivered a widely anticipated 25 bps cut to the Overnight Policy Rate (OPR) on 9 July 2025. Investment sentiment remained cautious but stable, supported by a moderate economic growth outlook aimed at preserving Malaysia's steady growth trajectory amid ongoing global challenges. Market Malaysia's 2Q 2025 Gross Domestic Product (GDP) growth held steady at 4.4% Outlook Year-over-Year (YoY), supported by front loading activity, due to pause on higher tariff rates. As the US reciprocal tariff of 19% has been announced on imports from Malaysia, domestic growth could be slower ahead as external demands weaken. We maintain overweight on duration, given the supportive background. Yield curve positioning strategy is deployed at the belly of the curve (5 - 7 years) to capture potential curve flattening and benefit from bonds "rolling down" to lower yields. We prefer corporate bonds for higher yield pick-up, compared to govvies. Credit spreads are likely to stay tight, with strong demands from local investors. We are selective on credit names, with a focus on defensive sectors and issuers with strong credit metrics, particularly in utilities, infrastructure, and banks.
