

ANNOUNCEMENT

Notification of Brand Transition from AmInvest to AmWealth

Following the launch of the AmWealth brand by AmBank Group last year, we are pleased to inform you that the AmInvest brand, under which our funds management business is currently marketed, will progressively transition to the AmWealth brand.

This brand transition marks an important milestone in strengthening AmWealth's position as a comprehensive wealth management franchise, delivering a seamless and integrated experience across funds management, private banking, and investment advisory services, including financial planning and protection solutions. AmWealth serves the diverse needs of retail, affluent, institutional, corporate, SME, and high-net-worth clients.

The relevant products and services under the AmWealth brand will continue to be provided by the respective entities within AmBank Group in accordance with their respective licenses, including AmFunds Management Berhad ("AFM"), AmIslamic Funds Management Sdn. Bhd. ("AIFM"), AmPrivate Banking, and AmBank Wealth Management & Bancassurance.

For the avoidance of doubt, this is a branding change only, as AFM and AIFM will continue to carry on the funds management business currently under the AmWealth brand. This branding change will not result in any changes to our legal entity names, corporate structure, business operations, regulatory licences, management, contractual arrangements, or the existing rights and obligations of AFM and AIFM. Both entities remain committed to the same investment philosophy, service excellence, regulatory compliance, governance standards, and fiduciary responsibility.

The transition to the new brand identity will be carried out in phases across our communications, marketing materials, digital platforms, and client touchpoints. During this transition period, our existing website, www.aminvest.com, and email address, enquiries@aminvest.com, will remain accessible while the AmWealth branding is progressively implemented across the relevant touchpoints.

We sincerely thank you for your continued support and valued partnership.
